

ADVERB EXERCISE

EXERCISE

Underline the adverb in each sentence. Circle the verb it modifies. In the space at the right state what the adverb tells: how, when, where, how much or how often.

1. The big drawing always attracts a crowd at the county fair. _How Often_____

2. For weeks, merchants cheerfully give numbered tickets with purchases.
___How_____

3. My cousin Stephanie and I finally collected forty tickets. ___When_____

4. "If we're lucky," I often told Stephanie, "we will win a beautiful new car."
___How Often_____

5. Saturday came, and we merrily waded through the crowd at the fair.
___How_____

6. Rules stated that the holders of the winning tickets must be there.
___Where_____

7. At midnight, the men promptly started the drawing. ___How_____

8. "The winner of the new Ford is 699-3434!" barked the announcer.

"Will the holder of that number come forward?" ___Where_____

9. I squealed delightedly, for Stephanie had that ticket. ___How_____

10. Stephanie then surprised everyone. ___When_____

11. She walked slowly to the platform for her prize. ___How_____

12. "I can't drive my new car," she moaned unhappily. ___How_____