

PRONOUN EXERCISE #2

EXERCISE

Place the letter of the appropriate choice in the blank.

- _____ 1. A high school teacher persuaded my friends and (A) I, (B) me to study computer languages.
- _____ 2. We told George that we would like to ride with Bob and (A) he, (B) him.
- _____ 3. There was a strong spirit of competition between my sisters and (A) I, (B) me.
- _____ 4. The reporter asked him (A) who, (B) whom his backers were but got no reply.
- _____ 5. Last year (A) he, (B) him and one of his sisters spent the summer in Oregon.
- _____ 6. Three of us were still in the competition: Sue, Elvira, and (A) I, (B) me.
- _____ 7. Not everybody who is richer than (A) we, (B) us is also more prosperous.
- _____ 8. Strictly between you and (A) I, (B) me, the forecast seems inflated.
- _____ 9. Our neighbor has granddaughters (A) who, (B) whom she loves very much.
- _____ 10. Though your friend has made you an offer, other employers will be able to pay considerably more than (A) he, (B) him.
- _____ 11. Children with learning disabilities need therapists (A) who, (B) whom they know and trust.
- _____ 12. This matter concerns you as much as (A) we, (B) us.
- _____ 13. Congress should study the feelings of (A) we, (B) us taxpayers before it votes for the new law.
- _____ 14. George never admitted that another candidate might be a better choice than (A) he, (B) him.
- _____ 15. If he was satisfied with Miriam's qualifications, he is bound to accept someone much more experienced than (A) she, (B) her.
- _____ 16. Carol wanted us to go to a play, but Alice and (A) I, (B) me were not really interested.
- _____ 17. Joan Didion, (A) who, (B) whom is known as a shrewd observer of the American scene, wrote a book about El Salvador.
- _____ 18. Next year, I am going to rent a summer cottage for my family and (A) I, (B) me.
- _____ 19. Two police officers were waiting for Sam and (A) I, (B) me when we returned to the house.

- _____ 20. The rest of the crew and (A) I, (B) me were too careless to pay attention to the captain's warning.
- _____ 21. The woman disqualified for the jury was taller than (A) she, (B) her.
- _____ 22. Often information was presented to my classmates and (A) I, (B) me before we were ready for it.
- _____ 23. We expected the city council to have more consideration for the wishes of (A) we, (B) us young citizens.
- _____ 24. As a social worker, I often visited immigrants, many of (A) who, (B) whom knew very little English.
- _____ 25. The secretary has arranged a special appointment for you and (A) she, (B) her.

EXERCISE

Check all pronoun forms in the following sentences. Mark each sentence S for satisfactory or U for unsatisfactory.

- _____ 26. The operator had left a message for my coworkers and I.
- _____ 27. He had planned to be an actor, but bad luck befell he and his family.
- _____ 28. Paolo always had a kind word for us neighborhood children.
- _____ 29. My grandmother remembered settlers who lived in sod houses.
- _____ 30. My brother's employers had never hired anyone as young as him.
- _____ 31. She is the kind of writer about whom critics disagree violently.
- _____ 32. My sisters and me went on long hikes together.
- _____ 33. When my brother and I went to school in Los Angeles, the teachers always picked him or me to run their errands for them.
- _____ 34. Who can I expect to believe me?
- _____ 35. The wind helped the other team more than us.