

VERB SELECTION

EXERCISE

Underline the correct verb for the following sentences.

1. Susan and her fiancé (is, are) going to finish college before getting married.
2. Either you or I (am, is) smart.
3. The principal and nobody else (is, are) responsible for the decision.
4. You (got, have) to catch the bus on time.
5. I should (of, have) swam back stroke instead of butterfly.
6. You (better, had better) shut the windows before leaving.
7. The film's actors as well as the director (had better, have better) start working harder.
8. Neither Ronald nor his sister (is, are) serious about the project.
9. She (got to, had better) write the letter.
10. She would (of, have) taken the picture.
11. Her bicycle, ice skates, and air mattress (was, were) stolen when the thief broke into the garage.
12. Either the president or his aides (is, are) honest enough to admit the mistake.
13. I (have, got) to go to work now.
14. She would (of, have) taken driver education in summer school.
15. He (better, should) go to the dentist soon.
16. She should (of, have) been more careful while driving.
17. They certainly would (of, have) won the game without the penalties.
18. Susan (accompanied by her parents) (is, are) going to the police station.
19. Since the inheritance, either my parent or I (is, am) rich.
20. The teachers and nobody else (is, are) angry about this.