

TYPES OF SENTENCES

EXERCISE

Indicate the type of sentence. Use D for Declarative Sentences, E for Exclamatory Sentences, IM for Imperative Sentences, and IN for Interrogative Sentences.

- _____ 1. John is having a salad.
- _____ 2. Can you pass the salt?
- _____ 3. Pass the salt now.
- _____ 4. Jen is having some pasta.
- _____ 5. What is Mary doing today?
- _____ 6. Wow!
- _____ 7. Where is the pepper?
- _____ 8. Herbs are wonderful in salads.
- _____ 9. Olive Oil has a good taste to it.
- _____ 10. Dad, can I have a sip?
- _____ 11. Bread is a staple food.
- _____ 12. I wish pizza was a staple food.
- _____ 13. Eat your food, son.
- _____ 14. What did you order?
- _____ 15. Can we have dessert?
- _____ 16. Broccoli is rich in vitamins.
- _____ 17. Yuck!
- _____ 18. I hate broccoli!
- _____ 19. Do I have to eat broccoli?
- _____ 20. Yes.
- _____ 21. Can we talk about something else?
- _____ 22. Harold is studying astronomy.
- _____ 23. Astronomy is awesome!
- _____ 24. What is astronomy, dad?
- _____ 25. Astronomy refers to the study of heavenly bodies.
- _____ 26. What are heavenly bodies?
- _____ 27. Galaxies and planets are heavenly bodies.
- _____ 28. Really?
- _____ 29. Please let the adults talk.
- _____ 30. Okay.